

I would hope the FCC will stand behind the privacy of all individuals. Keep the "do not call in place". The telephone should not be an "open book" for solicitation from any private or non profit entity.